

Your Career Path Journey to Success

A night of networking and a diverse panel of professionals to help you navigate your career choices!

Worried about finding a job after you graduate?
Wondering what employers are looking for? Come to a panel discussion with professionals from the banking, business, and nonprofit sectors!

Meet the Experts

Representing a diverse range of professional experiences, panelists will talk about their career journey.

- Debra Ponce de Leon, Senior Vice President
Special Assets Executive at Bank of America Merrill Lynch
- Angie Campone, Senior Vice President
Sales Performance Manager at Bank of America Merrill Lynch
- Jose and Guadalupe Jimenez, Owners
Carniceria Jimenez
- Julian Posada, Chief Operating and Enterprise Officer
The Resurrection Project (moderator)

What to Expect

- There will be ample time to ask questions and practice networking skills
- Dress in professional attire
- Refreshments will be served (light dinner/hors d'oeuvres)

This career readiness event is presented by:

(HOLA) Hispanic/Latino Organization for Leadership & Advancement

La Casa | Live.Learn.Thrive.
a Resurrection Project initiative

Bank of America
Merrill Lynch

(IGEN) Inter-Generational Employee Network

Cost

$0, Zip, Zilch, Nada

When

Tuesday, April 11, 2017

Where

Bank of America Financial Center
135 S. La Salle Street, Floor 43
Chicago, IL 60603

What

Registration/Meet & Greet 5:15 – 6:00 p.m.
Panel Discussion 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.
Networking 7:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Register for this event or for more information

Angela Crawford Neven
lacasa@resurrectionproject.org
(312) 880-1889

www.lacasastudenthousing.org